A Journal of A Voyage from the

September 7th 1822 Made the Island of St Thomas Cruised off from N.W. to North And then to the Eastward Caught 2 black fish in the Time which was 3 weakes or More then we got to Whale N.W. from the Island the 30th of 30th October got the Last whale that we See Making in All 160 bbls Sence that time we have Cruised 160 days and Seen nothing that is Seen to Sperm whales and Now we are About to leave this Cost And if ever I Come here Again it will be in A Steam Boat for the Current Sets Every which way very Strong
I think the Old Farm that is the Brazil or false Banks that is well Stocked with Bulls And Cows And where the Whales Are not governed by the Moon on the Cost of Africa the Moon has A Powerfull Effect on Man And Beast on the Decrese of the Moon Evening
And on the full and Change is the only Time whales have been Seen here

O Says the Captain to you Lady
What ill fortune has brought you here
She said it was for the sake of her true love
That you have pressed over here

7

O Says the Captain my good Ladie
~~What ill fortune ...~~
What is the Name of this young man
She said his Name it
It was William Taylor
Born in the world the Isle of man

8

And if his Name it is William Taylor
Born in the world the Isle of man
You shall see him tomorrow morn
And as he walks Along the Strand

9

Fair Lady Arose next morning Early

Sweet William

William was A royal lover
Blest with beuty And good care
And his love he did discover
To A lady young and fair

2

A way they went for to be maried Drest they mayne in Rich Array
And in Sted of being Married
Presed William was and Sent to Sea

3

She Dresed her Self in Scarlet velvet
And After her true love did ride
With A Musket on her Sholder
Sword and pistol by her Side

4

And when on bord this lady Entered
By the name of Richard Carr
With her hands as white as lilies
All besmeared with pitch and tar

5

Then on Deck this lady clambered
Being there Among the rest
And her waist coat being unbottoned
Soon Apeared her Snowy white breast

The Woman Song May 26th 1818

1

A Song A Song to you Every one
I mean to write down with Speed
All you that havenot your wits Secured
I am Shure you Stand in need.

2

It is I that never made Songs before
I mean to make this if I never make more
And it is women women wicked women what will this world come to O polly polly terrible polly what do you mean to do

3

The girls have got So far from that Tis after thare mother
They will not bild thare bonets on thare heads
Tis one Above Another

4

They will go to Church and make such a Show
I cant Serve my god for looking at you
Tis O women women wicked what do you mean to do O polly polly terrible polly what will this world come to 5

They will patch they will paint And powder there locks
And let their tettees go bare that the
That the young men may plainly See That they fair Maidens Are

The true Course of Love

When first I Saw the Carbonious of your beauty I made Sail and Stood in for it but Coming to Anchor upon the rocks of your Scorn and disdain until my Cable was almost Stranded then I hoisted my fore topmast Stay Sail with Jig and Sailed the gales of madness untill I Arrived at Some pleasant port Where I may Secure my Cable with the rounding of love untill you Send A marling Spike of Love to Splice it Again for every night when I go to bed I Dream that your damned Infernal Corpse are Stowed in my Arms I wish that your legs and Were Carved into Capstan bars and hand spikes your fingers and toes into belaying pins your Small Guts into ratling Staffs and your biggest into winding tackle falls to bowse your Soul in to hell pull After pull And if this is not A true Course of damn me if I know what Course Love lies in Nothing more Nothing less But I wish that Some of those N Winds would Blow you to the outer end of the Earth and Set your Ass upon A Cold Stone and freeze your tail to Eternity

This is A Coppy of A Letter

I never Should have fought him
And that you Clearly know
But for your Swaggering tiry gang
O Caly Strong my Jo

Friend Caly Strong my Jo Cale Advice like this I send
When Seated near two puddings
Be sure your one defend Lest meddling in your neighbour dish

You burn your finger so
You never get them well again
Poor Cly Strong my Jo

Poor Caly Strong my Jo Cale
One thing to me is true
Old Benedict the traitor had More honour far than you

He acted more Consistently
More endepent too
A double traitor he was not Like Caly Strong my Jo

Great things I did Expect Cale
Dobb from Such wisdom flow
But faith in Snake it did expire
Poor Caly Strong my jo

Poor Caly Strong my jo Caly
When Soldiers I did lead
Snug on the Shores of Castine
Over which you had Command you dand not dog repel me Nor fight your rulers — no for which we both despise ye

Poor Caly Strong my jo

great Caly strong my jo Cale
Had All you told proved true
Som royal wish for title
I Should have stuck on you

A Ribbon Star and garter
What else I hardly know
My lord of essex was the style
For Caly Strong my jo

Caly strong jo Caly
Im constrained to say
That uncle Sam clogged me
Completely gal me down

Great Caly Strong my jo cale
To you was henry sent
To aid you and your collogues
Some project to invent

At length the War began
Then you pricked up your Ears Sir
And all you dared you've done and order

You did withhould your troops Sir
Refused to let them go
When Madison Called loud for them
Friend Caly Strong my jo

Great Caly Strong my jo caly your striving to prevent the Enlisting of your Subjects
To aid your government

Your feeding of my armies
With mutton Beef and So
You have received my thanks for good Caly Strong my jo

Great Caly Strong my jo Cale
When our Convention met
In hartford famous City
To overturn the State

John Bull's Epistle
To my Lord of Essex

Why Caleb Strong my Jo Cale
What have you been about
You basely have me
I've fairly found you out

You've proved yourself a traitor
You've lied to me you know
You are an arrant Coward too
Caleb Strong my Jo

Great Caleb Strong my Jo Cale
Before the war began
A thousand times you promis'd me
That you would be my man

That you'd divide the union
You would ~~divide~~ split it at a blow
The northern half you'd give to me
Prince Caleb Strong my Jo

Great Caleb Strong my Jo Cale
to you was Henry sent
To aid you and your Colleagues
Some project to invent

To put your rulers down Cale
Your Congress overthrow
You plann'd — but fear'd to Execute
Sir Caleb Strong my Jo

The next was A tayler ~~that~~ with his bo[illegible]
I luged the poor rascal by both of his ears in Short I told him bi to be breef for I never intend to wed with A thief 7

The next was A fiddler that came in he told what A traveler he had Ben he offered for to play me A gig
I brake his fiddle and tore his wig
8

I put his Sadle Straps out of tune the people they surrounded the room the tears were trickling down his fase his fiddle was broke and I puted [illegible]

Virgen

I am a young Virgen
Last born and Brave
And I have as Envious Maiden head
As Ever A young man took in A Young Virgen

I am A young Virgen just born and
And I have as Envious A Maden head
As ever A young man took in hand
Besides I have forty Pounds in land

2

This young Virgen as she maden stand
Took Notice too A Saxon land
Whose forty young Lovers A waiting
At home of their Calling I long for Love

3

The first was A merchant that Came he told what A traveler he had been he Busted how he Could handle his sword he said he Could rite the Best of all men

4

The next was A Doctor that Came in
he told what A traveler he had been he said he had A Lance that would open A Vein
Cure it, Cleanse with Ease without any pain

5

The next was Apothecary with his he said he Could Cure me of Many ills Cure
then he took out his Glister Pipe
And I gave the rogue a good A kick

New Sea Song

1 Twas on the eleventh of November
It being a Stormy day
I Ship'd on bord A Swedish brig
To Cross the roaring Sea

2 the Captain's name was ireland
A man both [illegible] and trim of officers we had but tow
Aand both as good as him

3 the number of the Crew was eight Besides A slave Cook and blacker than the common kind Yet Smiling the did look

4 Twas on the twentieth of the month [illegible] our anchors weighed With our topsails sheated home for [illegible] we bore Away

5 But when Eastward Clear of [illegible] [illegible] South South east we stood when there arose A dismal Storm
And for reefing [illegible] clear'd

6 We Close reef'd the topsails fore and aft Aand [illegible] balance reef from head to foot our foresail split
In Spite of all [illegible]

Death of
Parker
Executed at the nore for muting June 1797

1
Ye gods above protect a widow
And with pity look on me
Help O help me out of trouble
Out of sad calamity

2
It was by the death of parker
Fortune prove to me unkind
And the hung for muting there some thing was left behind

3
Parker [illegible] husband [illegible]
My bosom friend whom I love dear
But at the time he was to suffer
Then I could not him get near 11

I looked east & looked west
To see which of them I liked best
But we both getting tired out door
Was worse then getting the day before

12

As we were A going up to A door
I told one say my face I will scour
For I am not fit to be seen
And then she stood behind the screen

13

Presently she did come in Thomas Palmer
And she was dressed very neat and clean
Soon as she see me with ax hair
She Answered me you servant Sir

14

Some was reeling & their yarn
And som their stockings they did darn Som knit & puff and som did not
And how many told I have forgot

15

Som was up and some was to bed
And some was under the covered
Some times I stayed some times would not Som times I might some times I could not 16

Then I set out in good ernist
I courted A daughter of the priests
And then A bargain soon was made
And we soon quickly married

5
When I got home it was just about nine
I was about at coffee time
My master he look very cross
Because that night I rode his horse

6
The last day night I began to nod
[illegible]ing for some place to lodge
As I sat thinking by the fire
I tumbled back with in my chair

7
The first I hit was my head to the floor
Which woke me so I slept no more
My master he stood side of me
My mistress she laughed heartily

8
Thursday night I sat out again
[illegible] awaiting cousin John
And we both went to see the girls
He took Pell and I took Sall

9
In the night the war broke out
The old woman she came scolding out
And then she took us both by our hairs
And we came tumbling down the stairs

10
The says began you lousy boys
For I will have none of your noys [illegible] to meet the girls ~~[illegible]~~ you to stay with Pell or Sall

Teach me to feel
Another woe
To hide the fault I see That Mercy I to Others show
That mercy the to me
Desire

5

Kind fortune has this prevented by
To my Susan I thought I should go for to meet with the long absent one Well hopes they were changed to woe

6

When the news reached her ears that the ...
Aye poor Thomas her boy was no more
She died like the rose that was nipped
While poor Tom loved her dear to adore

Poll and Sill Ebene

When I was young and in my prime
A courting I was much inclined
I lived along with my master
Till I grew up a long fellow

Diddle I dum di dum di day

Sunday night the moon shined bright
All the stars gave forth their light
As I was advancing over the way
I thought I heard a fair maid sing

Monday night I sat out again
I met the fair maid on the plain
Soon as she see I had no maid
She instantly gave me the bag

The next night I sat out with whip and spur Agoing on purpose to cheat her
And when she thought I rode that night she let me sleep till broad day light
